BANCA AKROS: MERGER PROCESS OF AKROS ALTERNATIVE INVESTMENTS SGR IN BANCA AKROS APPROVED BY RESPECTIVE BOARDS

- The Boards of Directors of Banca Akros and Akros Alternative Investments SGR have approved the merger process of Akros Alternative Investments SGR by Banca Akros and given the green light for the merger procedure to begin.

The merger is subject to prior authorization by the Bank of Italy pursuant to art. 57 of the Banking Act and art. 34, paragraph 4 of the FSA.

The merger does not have any impact on the strategic guidelines of the BPM Banking Group. As a result of this operation, there will be no change in the ownership of Banca Akros, nor in its control structure. The reasons for the merger and the decision regarding its structure stem from the liquidation of all of the funds managed by Akros Alternative Investments and the fact that there are no plans to set up any new funds, nor for Akros Alternative Investments to manage mutual funds in the future.

The merger will be effective from the date indicated in the merger deed and will take effect for accounting and tax purposes from January 1st, 2013.

Once the merger takes effect, all of the shares representing the entire share capital of the merged company will be cancelled without the merging company issuing any new shares. The articles of association of the incorporating Banca Akros will not be changed as a result of the merger.

The merger will take place in a simplified form, in accordance with art. 2505, as the share capital of Akros Alternative Investments is wholly owned by Banca Akros. It follows that no share exchange ratio will have to be determined, nor will any experts have to be appointed to verify the fairness of the ratio.
The strategy of Banca Akros is based on innovation, specialization and entrenched domestic operations, expanded over the years by strong growth in activities on all major international markets. Banca Akros’ activity in investment banking includes the brokerage of stocks and bonds, trading in financial derivatives, the listing of companies on the stock market, underwriting and placement of equity and debt securities, corporate advisory, treasury and forex desk; it also acts directly as a custodian and settlement bank. Banca Akros’ private banking activity includes tailor-made portfolio management, order processing for transactions on international financial markets and wealth management on behalf of private high net-worth customers.

Underlying all these activities there is constant financial analysis of domestic and international markets.

The Chairman of Banca Akros is Graziano Tarantini, and the Managing Director is Marco Turina.
